There are so many types of board games that exist in people’s homes. Some favourites are Snakes and Ladders, Monopoly and various types of word games.

Task:
Create your own board game using the 5 times tables as the concept of your game. You may like to adapt current games such as Monopoly or any card games like fish. Makes sure your game in visually appealing. Play the game with your family and see if you can beat them!