We don’t realise it but in our environment we see many types of different 3D shapes.

Task:
Identify all the different 3D shapes you can see around the house and organised them into categories. For example Cubes, Cones, Pyramids etc.

Bring your categories to school to share with your class!