Did you know that the average height of a basketball player is around 2 metres tall?

Task:
Measure the height of your family members and create a bar graph to represent the results.
Write 3 facts about your graph. For example the dad is taller than mum by _____cm.

Bring your work to school to share with your class.