

READING RESPONSE

What is the most interesting thing you know about the main character in your story?

Re write the ending to this story with an alternate ending and introduce a new character.

Describe an important event from this book and tell why it is important.

Make a list of the important events or information from your book.

READING RESPONSE

Think about a setting in this book. If you were in this setting, what are some things you would see?

Draw a setting that you visualised from your book, label your drawing.

Who is your favourite character in this book? Why is this character your favourite?

Create a character profile for your favourite character profile.

READING RESPONSE

If your text was non-fiction, describe the features of the text.

List the new information you discovered from your book.

